

Fun Rally Drive to:

"America's Love Affair with the Motorcycle"

The exhibit takes place at Ward Melville Heritage Organization's Educational & Cultural Center, 97P Main Street, Stony Brook Village. (Behind the Post Office)

This years exhibit contains all different motorcycles representing all the manufactures with a historic time line from 1903 to 2015. Billy Joel has two of his motorcycles on display and the museum has the oldest Indian motorcycle in the world and a 1912 Indian that was in the TV show "American Pickers".

Club member Gerry Duff will be our guide at the museum for an informative presentation. Free admission to club members bringing their British and vintage cars to the museum.

As an added feature will also take a short tour of the Stony Brook Grist Mill which is within walking distance from the museum. Afterwards we'll have lunch at Grant's Place, 555 N. Country Rd. St. James, NY 631-686-6662. Everyone can order off the regular lunch menu and Pay as you go.

Starting Location: Café Red's parking lot, 107 Main Street (Route 25A), Kings Park, NY 11754. Pick up a coffee and delicious pastry at the Park Bake Shop across the street.

Time & Date: Sunday, Aug, 30th, 2015 Arrive by 10 AM.

Driving directions for the drive from Kings Park to the museum in Stony Brook will be sent out shortly and copies will be available at the start point.

RSVP: George Stephani at geolee@optonline.net or call 516-448-9691 by Saturday, Aug, 22nd.