

Jaguars at the American Armor Museum Sunday, October 15th 2017 Time: 10am to 2pm

With its collection of some 30 operational vehicles, your families history and our nation's heritage come alive. Housed within a new multi-million dollar privately funded complex, the Museum of American Armor presents living historians, exhibits and operational armor with a mission of honoring all those who have served.

The Museum welcomes the Jaguar Car Club to display their cars in front of the building while members receive a guided tour to living historical exhibits and an opportunity to ride in the Museums World War II M3A1 Half-Track in the picture below. Continental breakfast will be provided by the Jaguar Car Club inside the Museum.

Admission includes, Museum entrance, continental breakfast, 8x10 picture of your car with an armored vehicle and an optional ride in the Half-Track on the museum grounds for just an additional $10.

Cost: $20 per person,
$30 per person includes a ride in the WW II Half-Track.

Afterwards, optional lunch at the Coliseum Kitchen, 1660 Old Country Road, Plainview, NY 11803
Pay as you go.

Please RSVP Mike Carroll before Oct, 8th at macsl300@aol.com or call Mike at 516-607 6074 and fill out the reservation form.
